

DODGE CITY, KANSAS Location

Fort Dodge was established to keep pioneers on the Santa Fe Trail safe from natives. In 1872, a group of businessmen organized a Town Company and began building a thriving community. When the railroad arrived, the expansion pushed out frontiersmen, who moved further west.

This card allows you to place a 5th Character on any one Land of your choice.

Wild West Tombstone, AZ

DOC HOLLIDAY 1851-1887 Law Enforcer

A former dentist, Holliday was forced to move to a drier climate to fight tuberculosis. He became a professional gambler and was seriously shot after a game gone bad. Teaming up with Wyatt Earp, he moved to Tombstone, AZ and played a central role in the Gunfight at the OK Corral.

When he occupies the same Land as an Earp brother, increase his Strength by 500.

The Wild West 300 / 400

CAPTAIN JOSEPH H. HURST 1836 - 1896 Military Leader

Hurst requested that Virgil and Wyatt Earp help track robbers who had stolen US Army mules. They followed the tracks to the McLaury farm. The Cowboys made a deal to deliver the stolen property but showed up empty-handed. This began the rivalry between the Earps and the Cowboys.

Decrease your opponent's Morale by 100 for every Outlaw in his or her Civilization.

The Wild West 300 / 300

BAT MASTERSON 1853 - 1921 Law Enforcer

Bat joined his brothers in Dodge City and became sheriff with Wyatt Earp. After one of his brothers was killed, Bat shot the assailant and boss as they tried to escape. Later he visited Tombstone and the Earps, but returned to take part in the Dodge City

When he occupies the same Land as Wyatt Earp, increase his Strength by 300.

The Wild West 300 / 200

Ike Clanton 1847 - 1887 Outlaw, Bandit

As a Cowboy and enemy of the Earps, he abandoned the Gunfight at the OK Corral, where his little brother was killed. He filed charges over the death, which were dismissed. When he was later implicated in the attempted murder of Virgil, the Cowboys helped him escape.

While defending any Land, if he loses, he may escape to another Land of your choice without harm.

The Wild West 50 / 100

Gunfight at the O.K. Corral October 26, 1881 Event

Though one of the Cowboys, he was part-owner of many mines, legitimate businesses, and a stage line. His actions led up to the Gunfight at the OK Corral and he participated in the murder of Morgan Earp. Two days after the murder, he was killed by Wyatt Earp while he was waiting in an attempt to kill Virgil Earp.

An opponent must discard up to two Characters in a Land you choose. One Character must remain in that Land.

The Wild West The Earp Brothers

Frank and Tom McLaury 1848 - 1881 Outlaw, Bandit

Ranch hands and members of the Cowboys, they started a rivalry with the Earps when Virgil confronted them about robbing the US Army. The rivalry got worse as the Earps interfered with the Cowboys' illegal activities. During the Gunfight at the OK Corral both McLaury's lost their lives.

Discard two of your opponent's Characters of your choice. Afterwards, this card must also be discarded.

The Wild West 300 / 100

Earps Vendetta Ride 1882 Event

After Morgan Earp was assassinated and Virgil Earp was ambushed, Wyatt Earp and Doc Holliday were deputized US marshals. While transporting the wounded Virgil to California, they found Frank Stilwell waiting to finish him off. This ignited their ride for revenge on all the Cowboys involved.

If an opponent caused you to discard a Character within the last two rounds, you may choose one of that opponent's Characters to discard.

The Wild West US Marshalls

The Pony Express 1859 Organization

Stagecoach routes, which were established from Missouri to California after gold was discovered, took 25 days to deliver messages. With the possibility of a civil war, the US government desired a quicker way to transport messages from Missouri to California. The Pony Express, assembled in 1860, took 10 days by a relay of experienced horsemen. It was disbanded with the completion of the telegraph in 1861.

Transport one Character or Army to any Land.

The Wild West Wells Fargo

Murder of Frank Stilwell March 20, 1882 Event

Though one of the Cowboys, he was part-owner of many mines, legitimate businesses, and a stage line. His actions led up to the Gunfight at the OK Corral and he participated in the murder of Morgan Earp. Two days after the murder, he was killed by Wyatt Earp while he was waiting in an attempt to kill Virgil Earp.

An opponent must discard a Character of your choice from any Land you attacked during the last three turns.

The Wild West Frank Stilwell

Mary Katherine Horony Cummings 1850 - 1940 Outlaw

Despite her questionable past, Doc Holliday fell in love with Big Nose Kate. When he moved to Tombstone with the Earps, the two separated for a while. After a bad fight, two officials got her drunk and made her sign an affidavit implicating Doc in a robbery and murder, but the charges were later thrown out.

Increase your Morale by 300. You must keep her for at least two rounds.

The Wild West -100 / -100

Johnny Ringo 1850 - 1882 Outlaw, Bandit

He was the leader of the Cowboys, friends with Clanton and Stilwell, and a contemporary of Jesse James. Though not present at the OK Corral, it is rumored he helped assassinate Morgan Earp. After Stilwell's death, Ringo joined the county posse hunting Earp's federal posse.

While he is in play, decrease Wyatt Earp's Attack by 300.

The Wild West 300 / 100

US Marshalls September 24, 1789 Army

As the oldest US federal law enforcement officers, the US marshals served as officers of the courts. Many served in the American Revolution, including John Adams's son-in-law. The American West accorded many marshals, including the Earps, legendary status.

All outlaws in play must be discarded.

The Wild West 2000/2000

TOMBSTONE, AZ Location

When Dodge City began to settle down, restless men headed to the boomtown of Tombstone, AZ, one of the last frontier towns of the Old West. In 1879, silver was found and miners flooded the town. That December, the Earp brothers moved in, Virgil was deputized, and war with the Cowboys began.

Move an opponent's Character card to another of his or her Lands of your choosing.

The Wild West Dodge City, Kansas

The Cowboys December 1, 1879 Army

The Cowboys were a group of 200-300 cow rustlers, horse thieves, and robbers who ravaged the west. They targeted Mexican and US ranches and stagecoaches, and terrorized the people. The Cowboys were believed to have taken an oath over the blood of their leader Johnny Ringo to kill the Earps.

You automatically win the first attack against a Land being defended by a Law Enforcer.

The Wild West 2000/1000

Silver Mining 1858 Technology

US silver mining gained its fame in Nevada in 1858, but the price dropped during the Coinage Act of 1873. In 1877, another large deposit was found near Tombstone, AZ. The metal was purchased from prospectors and transported east by stagecoach, which was risky due to bandits.

Increase your Morale by 300.

The Wild West Tombstone, AZ

WYATT EARP 1848-1929 Law Enforcer

Originally a constable, he ran into trouble with the law after his pregnant wife of one year died of typhoid fever. Moving to Kansas, where he wasn't known, he became a lawman and met Doc Holliday. He followed his brothers to Arizona to mine silver but found trouble when they were attacked during the Gunfight at the OK Corral.

When he occupies the same Land as Doc Holliday, increase his Strength by 500.

The Wild West 500 / 300

Colt Peacemaker of 1873 1873 Technology

This single action revolver, known as the Colt .45 was "the gun that won the West." Colt had created a reliable weapon that became military standard issue until 1892, beating out competitor Smith & Wesson. The Peacemaker may have been Wyatt Earp's weapon of choice, but he carried a S&W at the OK Corral.

Place this under a Character (keep it visible) and increase his or her Strength by 600 points.

The Wild West Smith & Wesson

William Brocius 1845 - 1882 Outlaw, Bandit

As a member of the Cowboys, Curly Bill hated the Earps and likely helped in the assassination of Morgan Earp. Enraged, Wyatt Earp gathered a posse and embarked on a vendetta ride. Stumbling upon the Cowboys, a gunfight ensued which left Curly Bill dead.

Discard an opponent's Character of your choice. Afterwards, this card must also be discarded.

The Wild West 200 / 100

VIRGIL EARP 1843-1905 Law Enforcer

Arriving in Tombstone, he was deputized a US marshal. The Cowboys were threatening to assassinate Doc Holliday near the OK Corral, so Virgil, Wyatt, and Doc met them with their guns. Later, Virgil was ambushed and seriously shot, just days after his brother Morgan was killed.

Choose one of your opponent's Outlaws to send to the discard pile.
