

Confederate States Army 1861-1865
Army

Despite his hopes for a professional army, Jefferson Davis's troops consisted mainly of volunteers. A total of 1,000,000 Confederate soldiers, not including slaves, fought without standard uniforms, weapons, or a central command.

If serving in the same Land as a Confederate officer, increase their Land's Strength by 1000.

BRIG. GEN. P. G. T. BEAUREGARD 1818-1893
Leader

Appointed commander of West Point in 1861, Beauregard quickly resigned and became the first general of the Confederate Army. His first command was Charleston, where he took Fort Sumter. He is best known for his defense of the Confederate capital of Richmond.

He blocks the ability of any opponent trying to transport Characters after war is declared.

Battle of Fort Sumter April 12-14, 1861
Event

Maj. Robert Anderson, anticipating conflict from Gen. P.G.T. Beauregard, moved his Union men to the island of Fort Sumter. A steady barrage of cannon fire from Fort Sumter forced Anderson to evacuate. The Confederates' powerful victory at Ft. Sumter triggered the Civil War.

Baltimore Riots (Lincoln's Martial Law) April 19, 1861
Event

A week after Fort Sumter was attacked, the 6th Massachusetts Regiment was attacked by pro-slavery loyalists in Baltimore. Four soldiers and 12 civilians died in the first bloodshed of the Civil War. Lincoln was forced to call for martial law in Baltimore.

INTERRUPT: Decrease your opponent's Strength by 500 for two turns and Morale by 200 permanently.

JEFFERSON DAVIS 1808-1889
Leader

A respected military leader and politician, Davis was trusted by Southerners. Not completely supportive of secession, he resigned from the US Senate after Mississippi seceded. Later elected president of the Confederacy, his poor judgment of effective military leadership may have led to the demise of the Confederacy.

Fugitive Slave Act February 12, 1793
Event

This 1793 federal law ordered the return of all fugitive slaves. Thanks to heroes like Harriet Tubman, programs like the Underground Railroad helped hundreds of slaves escape each year, finding refuge in "free" states. Slavery was constitutionally abolished in 1865.

Any Character taken from this player in the last two rounds must be returned to that player.

DAVID E. TWIGGS 1790-1862
Leader

A decorated US commander, he was dismissed for treason after surrendering all US Army forces in Texas to the Confederacy. He captured pro-Union soldiers, weapons and vessels, as well as vast US Army funds. He went on to become a Confederate commander.

His first turn only: Increase his Strength by 1000. After that, give him to the opponent you choose, at normal Strength.

CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA Location

After a lengthy 1860 election and contention over slavery, seven states (SC, MS, FL, AL, GA, LA, TX) seceded from the US. After the attack on Fort Sumter and Lincoln's call to raise an army, four more states (VA, AR, TN, NC) joined the Confederacy. They formed a government and elected Jefferson Davis president.

NEUTRAL STATES 1861-1865
Location

These were the border states (MO, KY, WV, DE) between the Union and the Confederacy. They were slave states where many of the battles of the Civil War took place. Their internal allegiances remained divided. Many in these states found themselves with relatives on opposing sides of the war.

For three turns: Though your opponent may attack, he or she may not take one Land, of your choice, from you.

Naval Blockade April 19, 1861
Event

Also known as the Anaconda Plan, this was a strategy to weaken the Confederates' ability to fight by cutting off outside trade using the Union Navy as a wall. The Union Army would move south and take control along the Mississippi River while the Navy blockaded ports in the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico, thus cutting the southern states in half.

Missouri's Confederate Overthrow 1861
Event

Missouri's stance on slavery was contentiously split. Gov. Claibourne Jackson unsuccessfully tried to force the state into secession. Capt. Nathaniel Lyon led efforts to remain loyal to the Union by taking over the capital. On July 22, 1861, an interim government was established.

Play this card and the Union Army during the same round and take back any Land taken from you during the game.

MAJ. ROBERT ANDERSON 1805-1871
Leader

Anderson was a dedicated Union military leader. In 1861, he moved his forces from Fort Moultrie to the more defensive Fort Sumter, the last Union stronghold in Confederate territory. Low provisions and constant attack by the South forced Anderson to evacuate.

Revenue Act of 1861 August 5, 1861
Event

The financial strain of the Civil War heaped loads upon America's previous $40 million national debt. In 1861, the Senate passed the first federal income tax on all US citizens making over $800 per year to pay off the debt. This income tax was later deemed unconstitutional.

PRESIDENT JAMES BUCHANAN 1791-1868
Leader

Elected the 15th president in 1856, Buchanan fought to keep the peace and avoid war. While he was morally opposed to slavery, he felt it was legal under the Constitution. Despite his view of secession as illegal, the beginning of the Civil War under his presidency was unavoidable.

CRITTENDEN COMPROMISE February 4, 1861
Event

Led by President John Tyler, 100 politicians from various states met in Washington DC to negotiate an alternative to secession based on proposals by US Senator John Crittenden (KY). Unfortunately, the Crittenden Compromise proved unsuccessful. Before a second convention could be held, Fort Sumter was attacked and the Civil War began.

Ordinance of Secession December 20, 1860
Event

Some secessionists saw the US Constitution as a voluntary pact. After endless constitutional debates, the election of an abolitionist president, and statewide votes, 11 states left the Union. They formed the Confederate States of America and elected Jefferson Davis its president.

An opponent's Land of your choice must discard half of its Characters (round down).

US Civil War Confederate States of America

UNION STATES Location

After secession, the US government became "the Union," representing mostly northern states. They saw secession as constitutionally illegal and would not recognize the CSA. After Fort Sumter was attacked, Lincoln formed a volunteer army to force the South's reunion with the USA.

Union Soldiers 1861-1865
Army

When the Civil War began, only 16,000 Union soldiers were currently enlisted. After the attack on Fort Sumter, Congress authorized a volunteer army of 500,000 men on July 22, 1861. At the persuasion of escaped slave Captain Robert Smalls, this army also included former slaves.

If serving in the same Land as a Union or other non-Confederate US military officer, increase its Strength by 1000.

South Abandons Congress March 11, 1861
Event

Contentions ran high in Congress, leading to secession. Animosity over slavery drove a Democratic congressman to beat his anti-slavery Republican colleague almost to death with his cane in the House Chambers. On March 11, 1861, the Confederate Constitution was unanimously adopted.

When played, an opponent with negative Morale must discard a Land of your choice and all occupying Characters.
